First before the preliminaries, sort yourselves into teams of two.
Well, with that the Chougin Olympic preliminaries will begin. The eight who win the primaries will proceed towards the finals!

SQUEEL!

WHEW!
The first event is... Paper Rock, Scissors!!
Only you, Lady
Um I'm not going to like brawling with you, Terrygirl.
If it's a brawl they want, it's a brawl they'll get!
What the hell? How did she mix them up that badly??
...where the losers will lift a one-ton Kayuu continually while the winners will fly to the moon to pick up a rabbit to deliver to the earth while the first four teams pass.
Fine, fine! I will get this fixed and approved by our new director, when we find one!
FIX THIS!
Who fired the old tournament director??
Shaddap! The rules were re-written by the former tournament director Kinkatsuman!
What's this aboot, eh? We should be judged on our own merits!
What is this Jib-Jabbo, cracka-fooh?

If you don't like this, then you can leave!!
Pardon me, Chairman
Please begin
Ah... Well, fine
Right! Paper-Rock-Scissors!
I will fight my way through this Choujin Olympics.

...can you lift the kaijuu with your hands?
Or...
So I guess I'll get the rabbit
So then..
I'll be fine!
I'm going to fly into the air with the thrust of my own FARTS!
Fu, don't be stupid My left hand is above par Watch me lift it one-handed
How about you?
Can you fly into the sky?
If she does it her way, the tournament will end immediately and I can't teach her another method of flying right this minute. However, something strange is developing.
Eee~
NO! NO! NO WAY!
USE THE RENTAL JETPACK!!

Yup
..though it was hard, I wanted ta' team up with you, Lady
You're in the lifting group?

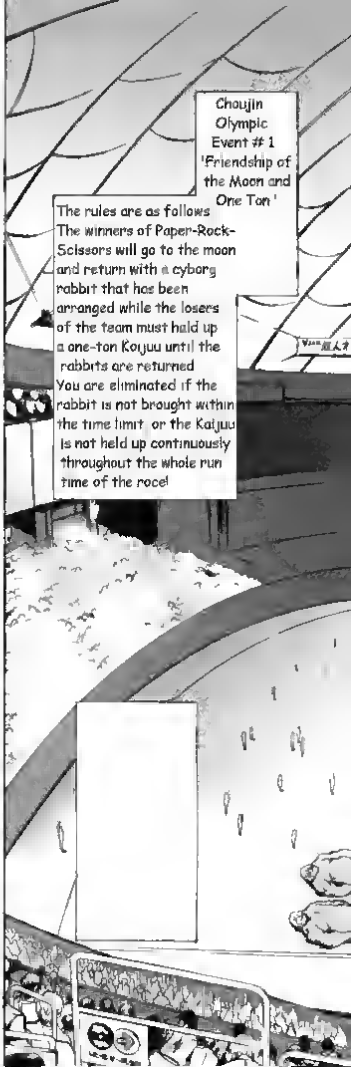
You gotta be careful out there, Kinnikuman Lady. If these are what's left of Kinkotsuman's rules, then y' might jus' find he's got somthin' else in mind with this whole event.

Don't worry! Fight! Fight!



Choujin Olympic Event # 1 'Friendship of the Moon and One Ton'
